2015 TRF ELECTIONS RESULTS

On December 29, 2015 the Election Committee met at 9.30 am in the Business Office Conference Room to process the Election Ballots that were returned from the worldwide voting membership. We received a much larger number of ballots (506) this year than during any of the previous years in the past decades. We witnessed a remarkable 49.75% return ratio of the ballots in the mail. It is very encouraging sign to see a larger number of our voting members waking up to take their responsibility more seriously in support of their unique and special organization: The Rosicrucian Fellowship.

The Ballot contained: 1.) Six (6) candidates postulating for three (3) open positions to serve on the Board of Trustees as well as 2.) a vote on the new 2015 Bylaws. The results were as follows:

• For Africa representation:

John ADDO	277	*
Samuel K. BOATENG	213

• For Europe representation:

Solomon ESSAH-ESSEL	229
Daniel O. KWABI	262	*

• For South America representation:

Gustavo PEREZ-LATERRA	182
Luciana SILVA	317	*

• For the 2015 Bylaws:

IN FAVOR -YES	358	*
OPPOSED - NO	45
ABSTENSIONS	103

The 33.33% quorum of votes required for the Elections was 339 votes, and 171 votes of that (50% +1) was required to pass. Voters sent back 506 votes in, with 358 Voting in favor of the 2015 Bylaws which passed with a large margin over twice the amount needed. (358 over 171).

John ADDO for Africa, Daniel KWABI for Europe, and Luciana SILVA for South America (Finally a woman on the Board How exciting:!) are the newly elected Board Trustees in this years election, who will serve their term until July 2018.
